Simla-4, the 11th December, 1967

No. Ft. 774-1/63(M).—Whereas the forest land and waste land shown in the Forest Schedule appended hereto are the properties of the Government or the Government has proprietary rights therein or the Government is entitled to the whole or any part of the forest produce thereof;

And whereas the Government proposes to declare aforesaid forest land and waste land as protected forest under sub-section (1) of section 29 of the Indian Forest Act, 1927;

And whereas the nature and extent of rights of Government and of private persons in or over the aforesaid land have not yet been recorded in any manner;

And whereas the Lieutenant Governor (Administrator) further thinks that an inquiry into and record of the nature and extent of the rights of the Government and the private persons in or over the aforesaid forest land or waste land are necessary but they will occupy such length of time as in the meantime to endanger the rights of the Government;

Now, therefore, in exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (3) of section 29 of the Indian Forest Act, 1927, the Lieutenant Governor (Administrator) does hereby appoint Shri Jaipal Singh, the Forest Settlement

Officer to inquire into and record the rights of the Government and of private persons in or over the aforesaid forest land or waste land and such inquiry and record shall be made in the manner as far as practicable provided in Part VI of the Himachal Pradesh Forest Settlement Rules, 1966 and during such inquiry the Forest Settlement Officer shall exercise any or all the powers under section 72 of the said Act as may be necessary;

And in further pursuance of the powers conferred by proviso to sub-section (3) of section 29 of the said Act, the Lieutenant Governor, pending aforesaid inquiry and record, does hereby declare the said forest land and waste land to be protected forest but not so as to abridge or affect any existing rights of individuals or communities;

And in pursuance of the powers conferred by section 30 thereof the Lieutenant Governor (Administrator) further declares that the trees shown in the second schedule appended hereunder, in the said protected forest are reserved with effect from the date of publication of this Notification in the Gazette and prohibits from the aforesaid date the quarrying of stone or burning of lime or charcoal or the collection or subjection to any manufacturing process, or removal of, any forest produce in the said forests, and the breaking up or clearing for cultivation or for building, for herding cattle or for any other purpose, of any land in the said forests.

THE HIMACHAL PRADESH (ADAPTATION OF LAWS ON STATE AND CONCURRENT SUBJECTS) ORDER, 1968

G.S.R. 1946.—Whereas by section 89 of the Punjab Reorganisation Act, 1966 (31 of 1966), the Central Government is empowered, by Order, to make such adaptations and modifications of any law made before the 1st day of November, 1966, relating to a matter in List II or List III in the Seventh Schedule to the Constitution, as may be necessary or expedient for the purpose of facilitating the application of such law in relation to the Union territory of Himachal Pradesh;

And whereas by section 21 of the Delhi High Court Act, 1966 (26 of 1966), the Central Government is empowered, by Order, to make such adaptations and modifications of any law, as may be necessary or expedient to give effect to the provisions of that Act in relation to the Union territory of Delhi or Himachal Pradesh;

Now, therefore, in exercise of the powers conferred by section 89 of the Punjab Reorganisation Act, 1966 (31 of 1966), the Central Government hereby makes the following Order, namely:—

1. (1) This Order may be called the Himachal Pradesh (Adaptation of Laws on State and Concurrent Subjects) Order, 1968.

(2) It shall be deemed to have come into force on the 1st day of November, 1966.

2. (1) In this Order.—

(a) “appointed day” means the 1st day of November, 1966;

(b) “existing law” means any State Act or Provincial Act in force immediately before the appointed day in the whole or any part of the territories specified in sub-section (1) of section 5 of the Punjab Reorganisation Act, 1966, and comprised in the Union territory of Himachal Pradesh, and includes any rule, order, bye-law, scheme, notification or other instrument made under such State Act or Provincial Act, but does not include any law relating to a matter enumerated in the Union List;

(c) “law” has the same meaning as in clause (g) of section 2 of the Punjab Reorganisation Act, 1966.

(2) The General Clauses Act, 1897, applies for the interpretation of this Order as it applies for the interpretation of a Central Act.

3. As from the appointed day, the existing laws and the Central Acts mentioned in the Schedule to this Order, shall, until altered, repealed or amended by a competent legislature or other competent authority, have effect subject to the adaptations and modifications directed by the Schedule or, if it is so directed, shall stand repealed.

4. Whenever an expression mentioned in column 1 of the Table hereunder printed occurs (otherwise than in a title or preamble or in a citation or description of an enactment) in an existing law, whether an Act mentioned in the Schedule to this Order or not, then in the application of that law to the Union territory of Himachal Pradesh or, as the case may be, to any part thereof, unless that expression is by this Order expressly directed to be otherwise adapted or modified, or to be omitted, or unless the context otherwise requires, there shall be substituted therefor the expression set opposite to it in column 2 of the said Table, and there shall also be made in any sentence in which that expression occurs, such consequential amendments as the rules of grammar may require.
